

Omni MC & Cedric Clinton: “OptiMystic”

Omni MC:

Feet on the floor

Seated on the bed

Elbows rest above my knees

I lift up my sleepy head

Breathe it in

Because it's time to begin

Another day another blessing

Another scar another lesson

Wait, I got a question

How Come I've been insecure

When I know I'm the best at being me

And that's all I gotta do

To live free live true do be do be

Do the work with love

It's worth the transformation into patience

Brand new situation now I find myself in

Nothing changed till I shift my perspective

Now I look around me

Check this out

Everything has changed

I'm getting into it

Learning to implement the law

Of attraction

Gaining traction

Getting up every time I fall

It's all in my mental

Within my temple

Allow me to open up the door

I heard there's a girl who sells seashells by the sea shore

That's already yours

Vision of a mystic

How you wanna feel

Cedric Clinton:

I wanna feel like a King everyday that I rise

With my Queen by my side as I look in her eyes

Express gratitude for all da blessings in my life

Step outside & I salute da sun in the sky

You know what I see? (What!?) U-N-I-T-Y

Because life's better when we U-N-I-F-Y

With our energies aligned, heart, spirit, & mind

You could grow & get yours & I'ma get mine

We'll be fine like wine getting better wit time

These great lines I design will travel through the grapevine

Remind those that they find, it's best to see the cup 1/2 full

OptiMystic mind states are magically impactful

Yesterday I wrote my dreams down on a page

Today I woke up to see em right in my face

With ease & grace, I believe it could just happen this way

So I focus on my vision & believe when I say

Cedric Clinton & Omni MC (Call & Response):

You know what I see

What

Power in the people

You know what I see

What

Good over evil

You know what I see

What

Everybody knows their worth

You know what I see

What

Reconnection to the earth

You know what I see

What

Revolution & solutions

You know what I see

What

Universal Evolution

You know what I see

What

Love & Light

You know what I see

What

Were gonna be alright
